-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kelso (1,181,079). Kelso discloses a transmission device (figures 1, 2) of a vehicle, including a vehicle having a shaft (for example, #11), a driven wheel (including #1) with internal gear teeth (including #15) mounted to the shaft center (via plates #2, 3 and hub #6), and a small driving gear (for example, #14) with outer gear teeth (best seen in figure 1) defined thereon in mesh with the internal gear teeth of the driven wheel (page 1, lines 67-69). Depending on the position of the shaft, the small driving gear is located at the offset center of the driven wheel (best seen in figure 1) and able to serve as a main source of offset power supply (pages 1-2). When the small driving gear, carrying the total weight and load of the vehicle, is rotated forwards and upwards at the driven wheel therein, the outer gear teeth of the small driving gear tend to climb forwards along the internal gear teeth of the driven wheel in internal offset gearing and able to rotate the driven wheel (page 1, line 56-page 2, line 3), effectively converting the gravity force into dynamic driving power and able to reduce the output of power requirement for more economical and efficient use.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claim 2 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Twiford, Fahrenschon, and Avitan et al. each disclose a transmission device of a vehicle including a shaft, driven wheel with internal gear teeth, and small driving gear with outer gear teeth that mesh with the internal gear teeth of the driven wheel, the small driving gear located at the offset center of the driven wheel.

Olson, Waller, Wike, Double, Schlosser, Moody, Gil, and Bodie et al. each disclose a transmission device of a vehicle including a shaft, driven wheel, and small driving gear that meshes with the driven wheel.
